

GZCC SERVICES offers Consulting for businesses presently or future working with First Nation businesses and or First Nation communities.

Corporations desiring to increase communication with First Nation are better received by increasing your company's knowledge of both Historical information and present day relations and operations.

Understanding the First Nation Band cycles, the values, long range reach and can your business offer be productive versus non-product to First Nation futures and much more.

With recent events concerning Residential Schools ensuring your employees are well versed enhances interaction with First Nation communications.

Consulting fees are depended upon your company's requirements.

Contact:

Consultant: Sandi Verley

Email: Gzccservice@gmail.com